

Conference Leadership in Education

9 - 10 September, 2013
Vilnius

To create and develop practices which promote development of a leader as an open minded person with strong personal character who serves as a coordinator and who builds bridges among various groups of people engaged in education

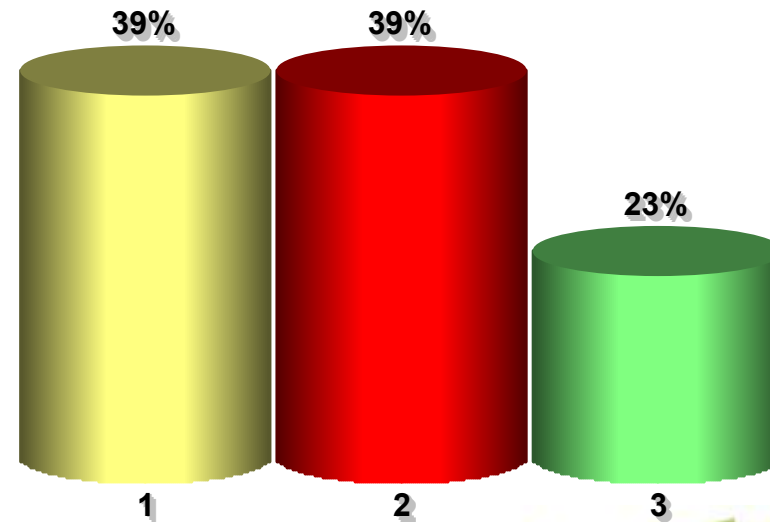

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To create and develop practices which promote development of a leader as well trained professional who keeps ongoing professional development

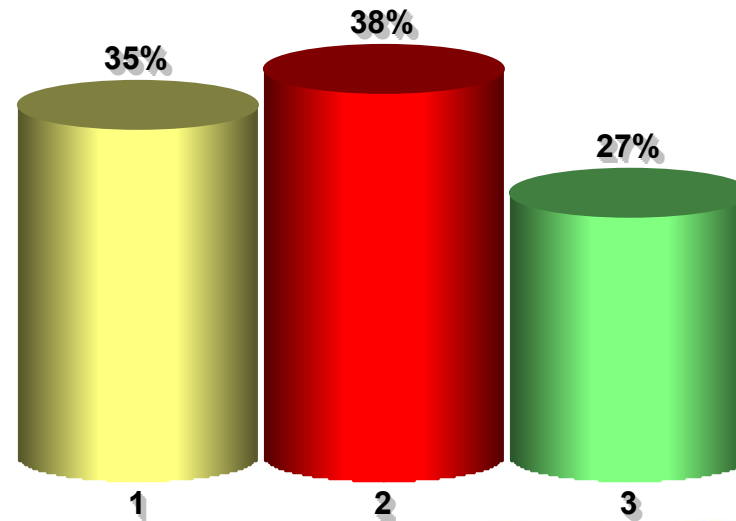

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

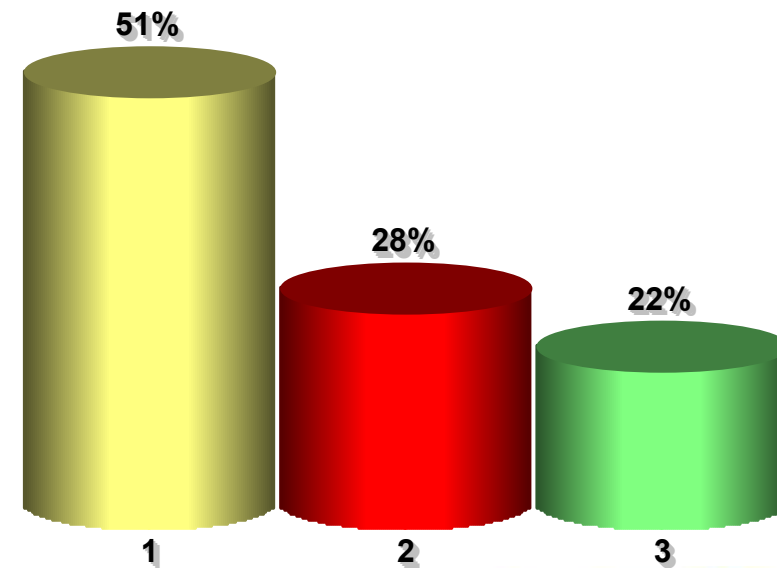

To create and develop practices which promote development of a leader as a visionary person with strong vocabulary and clear strategic thinking

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

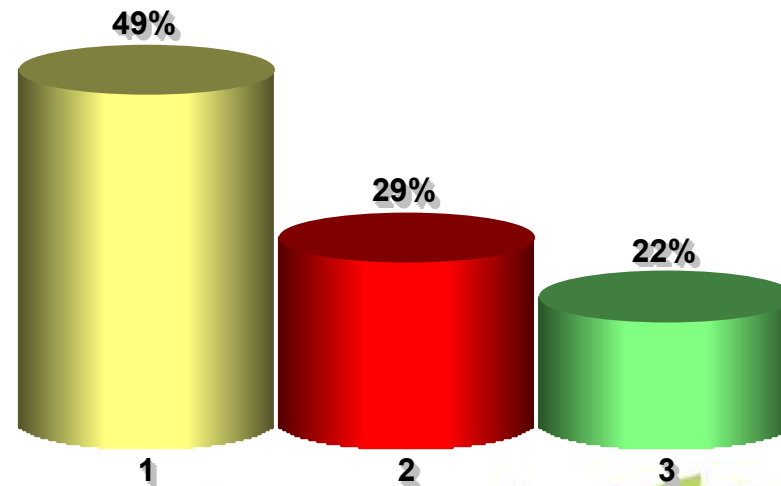

To create and develop systems of leaders' continuous training and professional development at all levels

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To create and develop platforms for networking and sharing experience among various groups (students, teachers, school heads, parents, administrators, politicians) on the whole range of educational issues

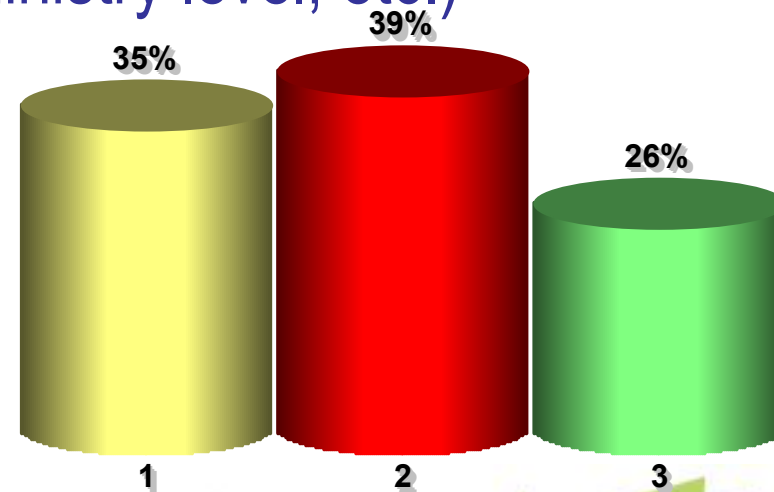

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To create and develop professional paths for building up leadership excellence through encouragement cross sectoral cooperation (praticing leadership positions in different areas: business – education; education – municipality / ministry level, etc.)

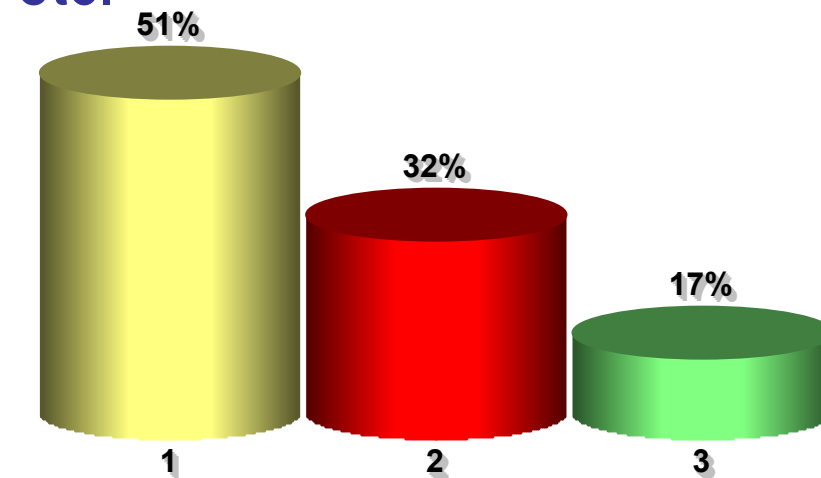

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To improve and to foster cooperation among all stakeholders of the school: students, teachers, school administration, parents, local educational departments, social partners, etc.

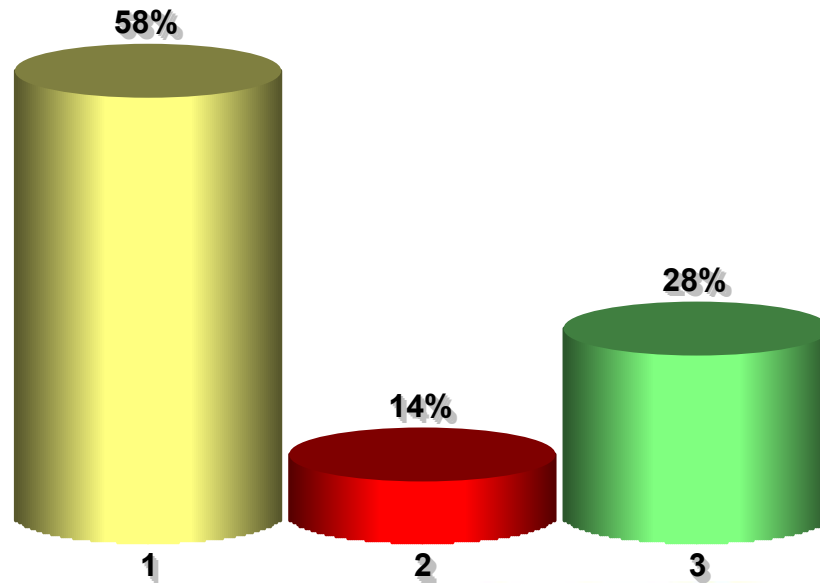

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To promote education as the key national value and raise the prestige of the teacher's profession

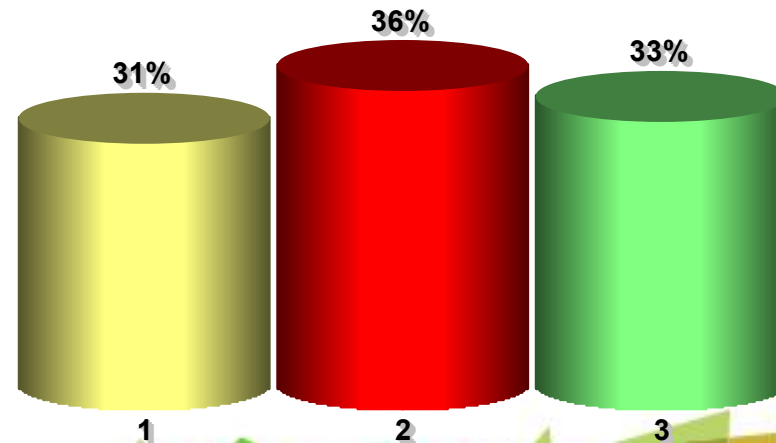

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

By keeping a balance between existing educational policies and building on them with an intention to better prepare the youth for career paths they take implies that educational institutions must be creative and visionary enough to provide necessary skills to all youth groups to be successful in the future

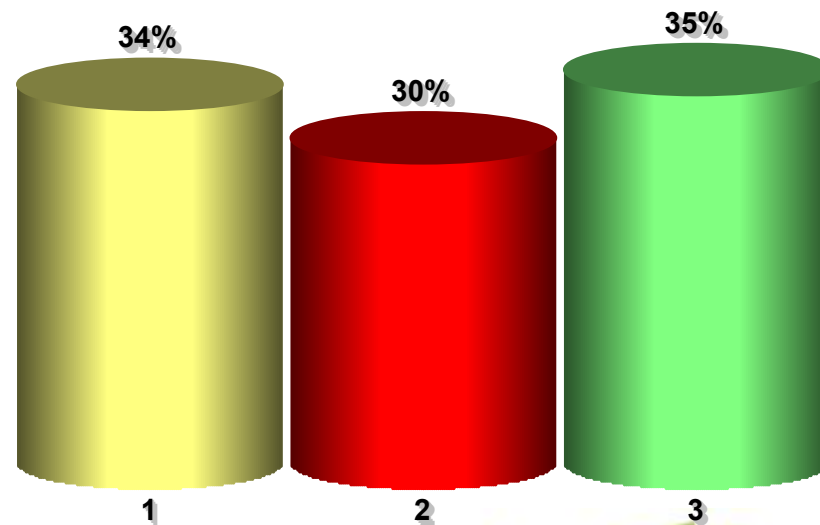

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

Use the EU educational policy network to ensure continuity of national education policy with enough funding

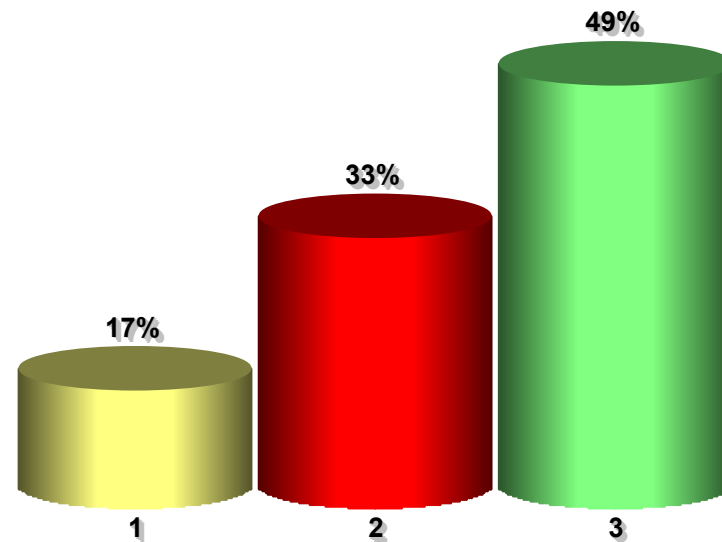

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

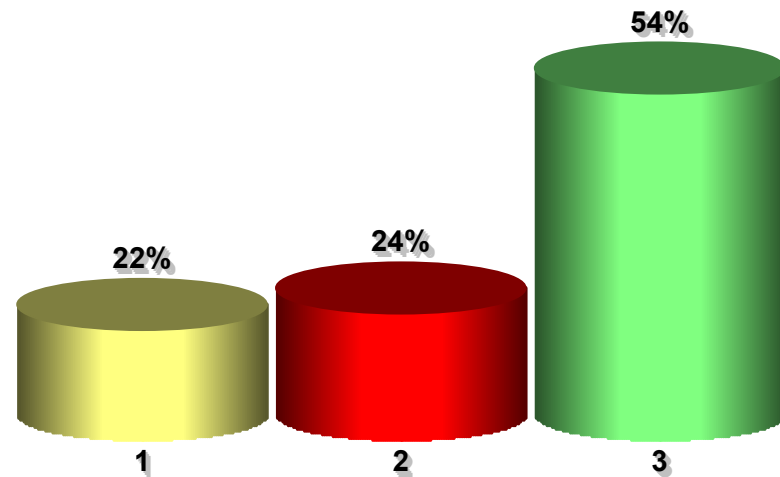

Goal: to promote sustainable networks of small groups of schools (from 5 to 10)

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

Societies cannot be governed only by one means (laws) and one locus (government). Government and other authorities need to be “leaders of leaders” and “leaders among leaders”

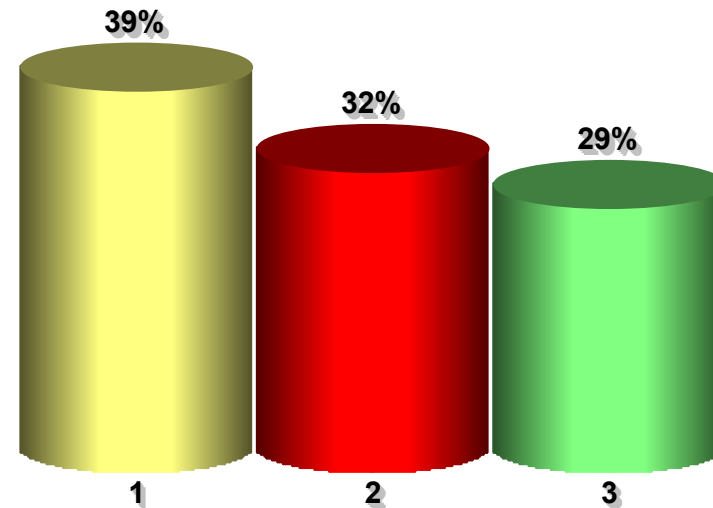

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To foster professional learning community horizontally and vertically, and through the use of different social technologies (teachers as students)

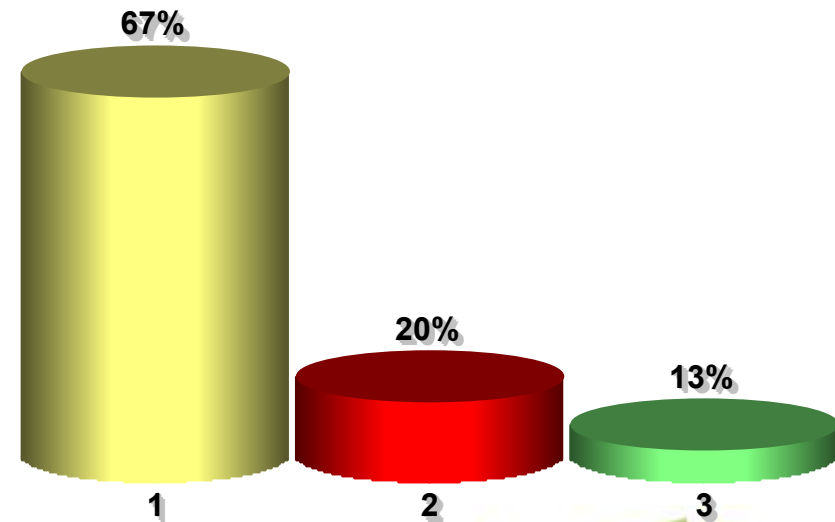

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

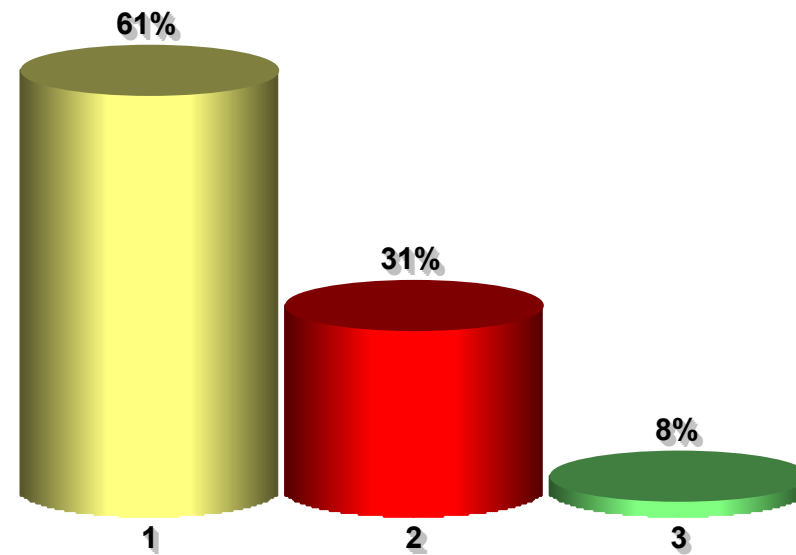

To develop conditions for leadership and learning:
making space for change; allowing risk, trust, creativity;
appreciative enquiry, sustainability

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To ensure more autonomy for school communities (trust and support balance with external control)

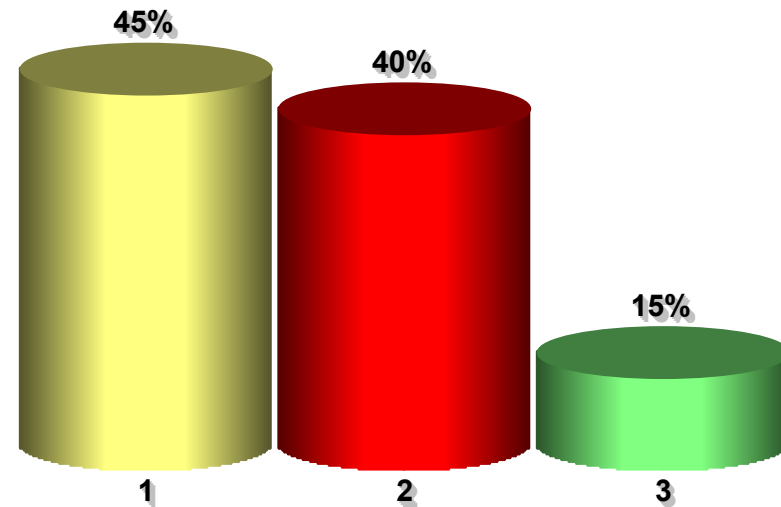

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To support networking and peer learning among educational leaders (more opportunities to learn from each other at the national and EU level)

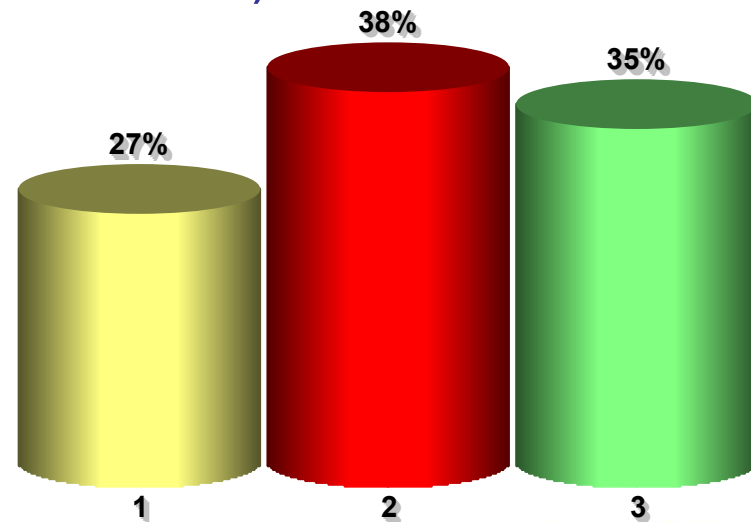

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To start developing European teacher_training and CDP system: EU-WIDE CPD program for school leaders (e-learning, MA in school leadership, research institutions, common seminars, etc.)

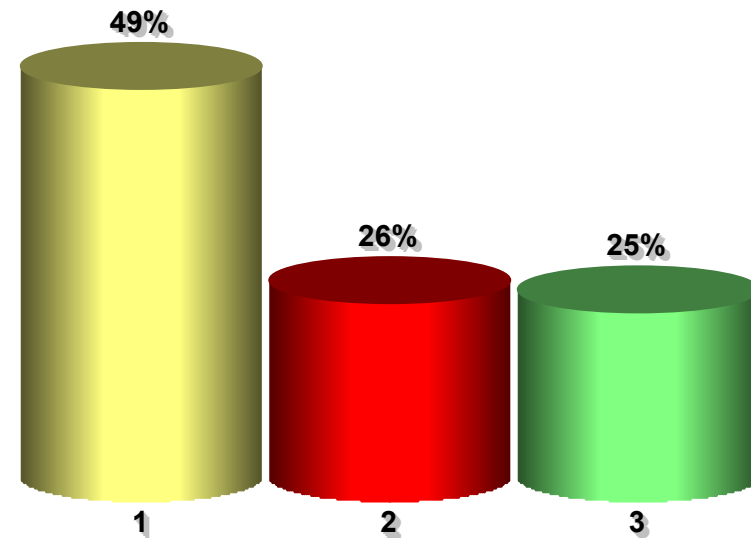

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To include the development of leadership skills and key competencies into the curriculum of educators

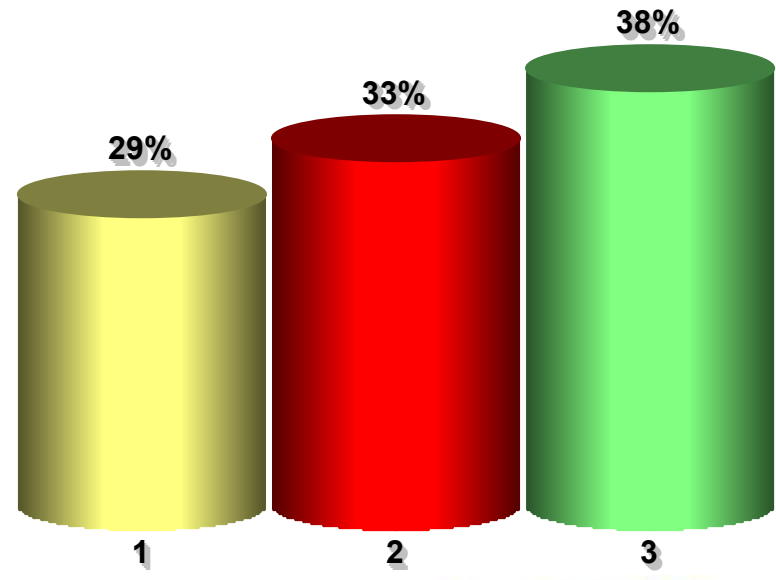

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

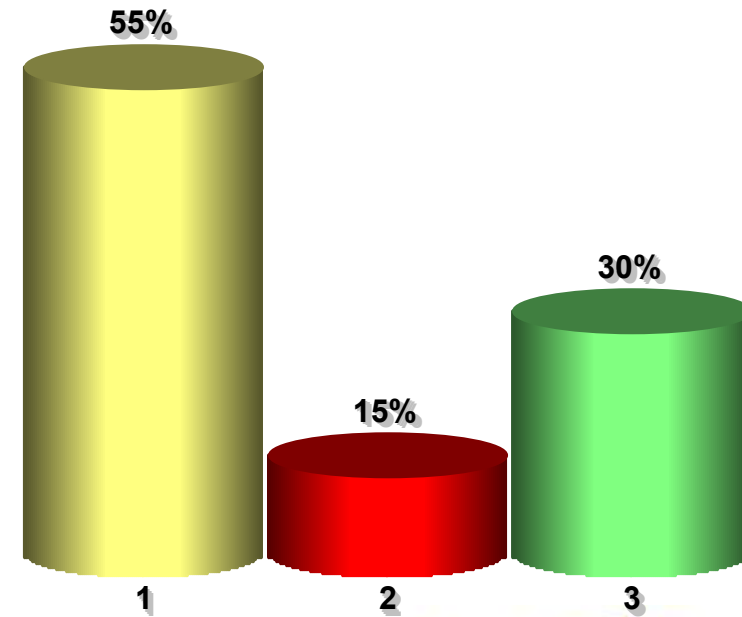

To create professional path for school leaders with the opportunity to work in different sectors in education and industry

- 1. FIRST PRIORITY
- 2. SECOND PRIORITY
- 3. THIRD PRIORITY

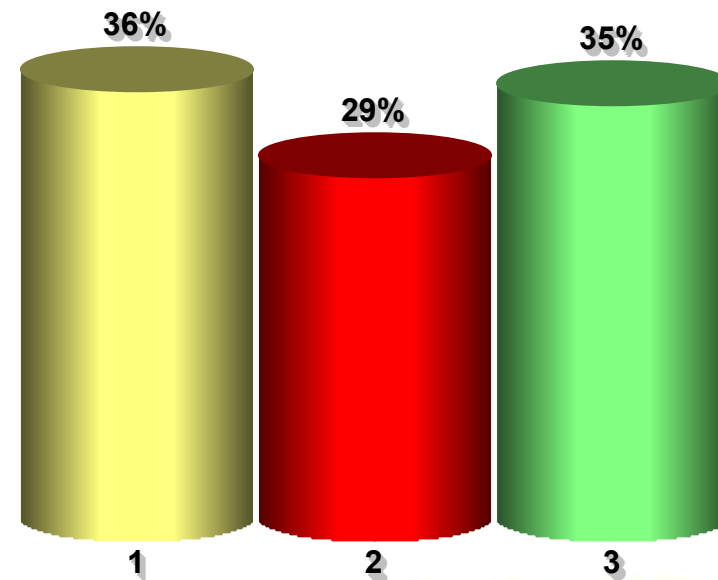

To promote an understanding that education is for learning to live,
to work and enjoy life

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

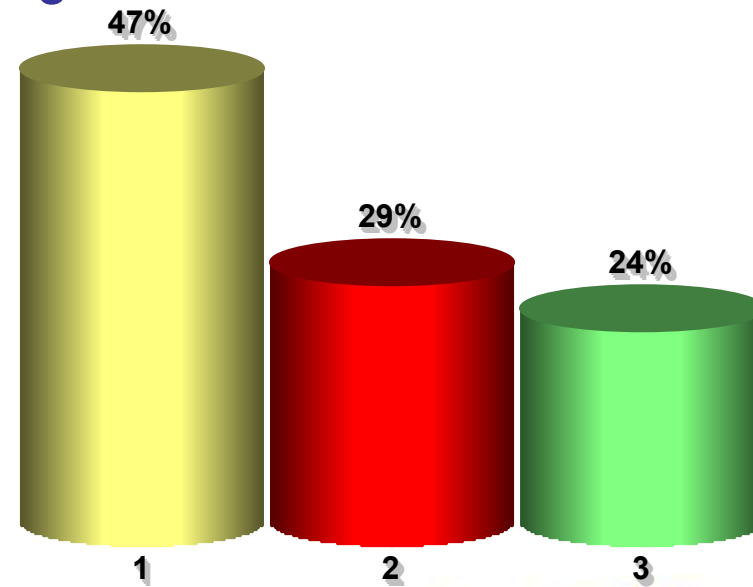

To change the emphasis from developing individual leaders towards distributing leadership across the whole education

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To give young people transferable soft skills for employability and life itself in the constantly changing world by mentoring and guiding

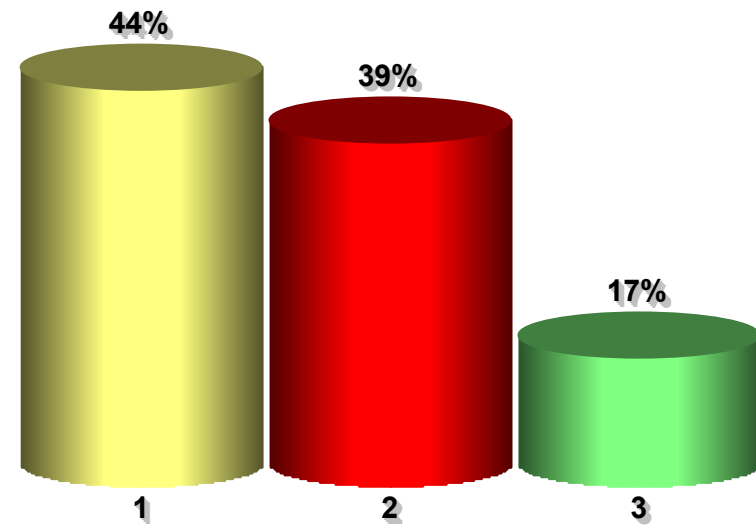

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To promote collaboration and networking among educational system and labour markets, school and local community (improving school democracy)

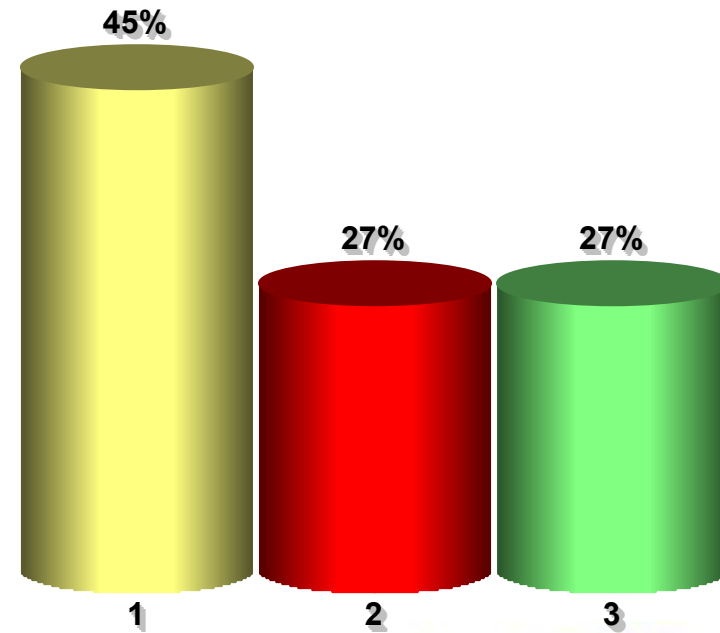

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

To empower teachers to use active teaching (personalized approach and peer learning)

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

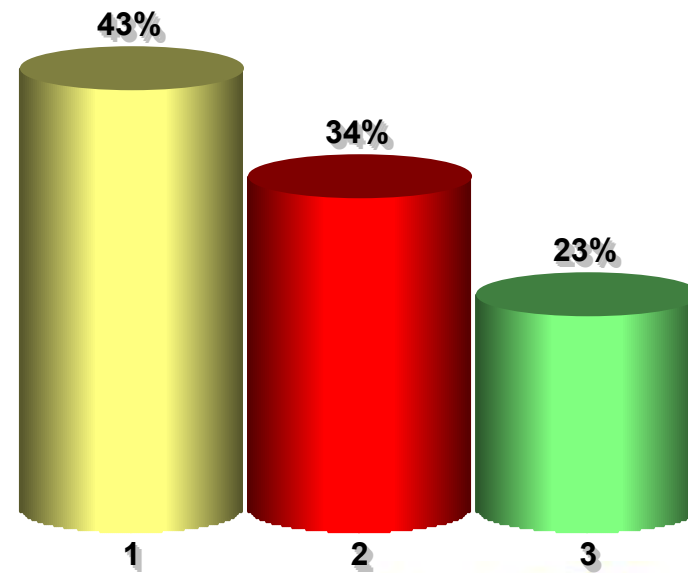

Bridging all levels of education

(preschool, primary, secondary, higher education, etc.)

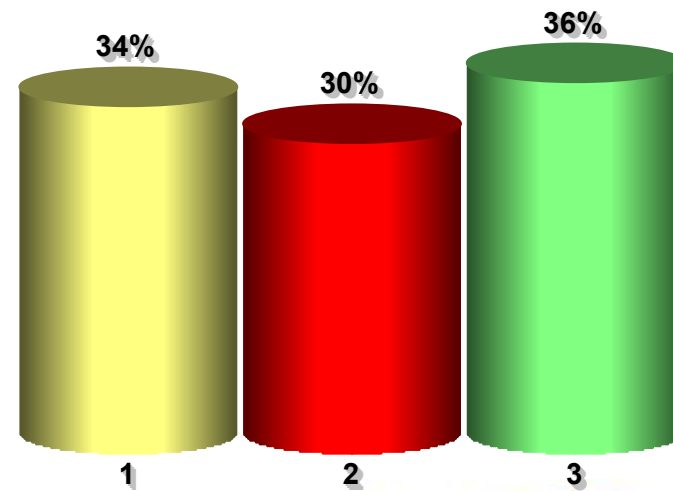

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

Partnerships should rely on trust instead of competition and in order to close the gaps they should pass a critical evaluation of relevance and added value showing the benefits of cooperation

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

Empowering children with more responsibility recognizing them as partners

1. FIRST PRIORITY
2. SECOND PRIORITY
3. THIRD PRIORITY

